Task Description

In Class Essay (20 marks + 5 literacy)

You will be provided TWO unseen sources. You must use the sources to answer the following essay question:

“Using sources A, B and your own knowledge, ASSESS the impact of World War I on Australia.”

- Expected essay length 500 – 700 words.
- Students will NOT be permitted to use their essay scaffolds or notes in the in-class exam.
- The literacy criteria will be applied to this section

This response will be completed under exam conditions during your scheduled History period on Thursday the 29th of August 2024.

Research and Essay Scaffold

This has been provided to guide your research.

Using the attached scaffold, you are to research the impact of WWI on Australia and complete the essay scaffold. This research will form the basis of your in-class essay. You will be provided with a research scaffold to complete during class time to help formulate your draft response (available on Moodle).

Your research should include how the following elements changed due to the War:

- Experiences of soldiers (e.g. Western Front, Gallipoli)
- Formation of the ANZAC legend
- Returned and Service League of Australia (RSL)
- Impact of the War on the home front - jobs, technology, fashion and women in the workforce.
